Part III – Notices/Announcements

Happy new year, welcome back. I hope you all had a wonderful holiday season. As our ship's motto says “Je Suis Prest “ (I am ready), the Training Department has a very full plan for the remainder of the training year so please take full advantage of all the events planned. Summer training applications will be coming up soon so start to think about what you want to do this summer and if you have any questions please ask.
